Read the attached manual, Self-Help Manual for Limited Conservatorship of the Person. It explains the court process and how to fill out your court forms.

1) Fill out the attached forms completely

- ☐ GC-310 – Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator
- ☐ GC-320 – Citation for Conservatorship
- ☐ GC-020 – Notice of Hearing
- ☐ GC-312 – Confidential Supplemental Information
- ☐ GC-314 – Confidential Conservator Screening Form
- ☐ GC-348 – Duties of Conservator
- ☐ SDSC PR-20 – Referral for Investigator's Report

If you can't afford to pay the court filing fee, fill out these forms, too:

- ☐ FW-001 – Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs
- ☐ FW-003 – Order on Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs

2) Make three (3) sets of copies of the forms listed above. Two-hole punch the top of all the forms and submit the forms to the Probate Clerk's Office. Pay the filing fee unless you qualify for a fee waiver. You can check the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for further information on fee waivers.

3) Arrange to have someone over 18 (but not you) mail a copy of form GC-020 – Notice of Hearing and a copy of form GC-310 – Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator to all of proposed conservatee's relatives within the second degree (read Self-Help Manual at page 4 for more information). Also arrange to have someone over 18 (but not you) hand deliver a copy of form GC-320 – Citation for Conservatorship and a copy of form GC-310 – Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator to the proposed conservatee (read the Self-Help Manual at page 5). Then copy and file the Notice and Citation with the proof of service on the back completed by the person who performed the mailing and the delivery of the citation.

4) Arrange to get the form GC-335 – Capacity Declaration - Conservatorship completed by the proposed conservatee's doctor and file it with the court.

5) Be prepared to schedule meetings with the court investigator, court appointed attorney and the Regional Center (see page 5 of the Self-Help Manual for further information).

6) Check the Probate Examiner Notes on the internet a few days before the hearing (see page 9 of the Self-Help Manual for further information).

7) Attend the court hearing and bring the proposed conservatee to the court hearing unless his/her doctor states on form GC-335 – Capacity Declaration - Conservatorship that the proposed conservatee does not have to attend the hearing.

8) If the judge appoints you as the conservator, fill out and file form GC-340 Order Appointing Conservator and form GC-350 Letters of Conservatorship and submit them to the Clerk's Office.

What is a Limited Conservatorship?

There are several types of conservatorships. One special type of conservatorship is called the limited conservatorship. This is when a judge appoints a responsible person (called a conservator) to assist an adult with developmental disabilities (called a conservatee) who is unable to provide for her/his personal and/or financial needs.

There are two kinds of limited conservatorships:

1. A limited conservatorship of the person is a court arrangement where a conservator cares for and protects a developmentally disabled adult and provides for the conservatee's needs associated with daily life.
2. A limited conservatorship of the estate is a court arrangement where a conservator handles the conservatee's financial matters - like paying bills and collecting the conservatee's income if the conservatee has an estate.

How will I know if I also need to be a limited conservator of the estate?

You do not need a conservatorship of the estate if:

- the developmentally disabled adult you care for gets public assistance, like Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security (SSA) but has no other assets, or
- the developmentally disabled adult earns a wage.

But, you need a conservatorship of the estate if the developmentally disabled adult has other assets, such as an inheritance or a settlement from a lawsuit that is not in a special needs trust.

Note: This manual addresses conservatorship of the person only.

When is a bond required?

A bond is required in most conservatorships of the estate to guarantee proper performance of the duties of the conservator of the estate. If you are appointed only as conservator of the person you need not file a bond unless required by the court.

Who decides if the adult is developmentally disabled?

An adult with developmental disabilities is someone who has severe and chronic disabilities because of a mental or physical impairment.

The Regional Center in your community will test the proposed conservatee to see if she/he is developmentally disabled. If the Regional Center accepted the person as a consumer (or client) before age eighteen (18), then she/he automatically qualifies as a person with developmental disabilities. But, if the person has never been tested or accepted as a regional center consumer, she/he must be tested.

If the Regional Center feels that individual does not qualify as a person with developmental disabilities, and you disagree, you can appeal to the Area Board in your region (created by the state legislature to advocate for the rights of individuals with developmental disabilities).

When should I apply for limited conservatorship?

If you are trying to establish a limited conservatorship for someone who will soon be 18 years old, it's a good idea to start the process more than 3 months before the developmentally disabled person's 18th birthday. However, you can establish a limited conservatorship at any time after the person with the developmental disability has reached age 18.

Who can be appointed as limited conservator?

Any adult can file for conservatorship. Conservators are usually parents, sisters, or brothers, but any responsible adult can act as conservator. And, there can be more than one limited conservator.

What all limited conservators need to know!

What kind of decisions can a limited conservator make?

A limited conservator's duty is to help the limited conservatee develop maximum self-reliance and independence. Because developmentally disabled adults can usually do many things on their own, the judge will only give the limited conservator power to do things the conservatee cannot do without help.

After the hearing the limited conservator's "Letters of Conservatorship" and the "Order Appointing Probate Conservator" will list the exact areas (powers) in which the limited conservator is authorized to act.

What powers can a limited conservator ask for?

A limited conservator may ask the court to give you the following seven (7) powers:

1. Fix the conservatee's residence or dwelling
2. Access the conservatee's confidential records or paper
3. Consent or withhold consent to marriage on behalf of the conservatee
4. Enter into contracts on behalf of the conservatee
5. Give or withhold medical consent on behalf of the conservatee
6. Select the conservatee's social and sexual contacts and relationships
7. Make decisions to educate the conservatee

What are the Responsibilities of a Limited Conservator?

As a limited conservator of the person, you must take care of the conservatee's:

- Food
- Clothing
- Shelter
- Well-being

For more information refer to the Handbook for Conservators, published by the Judicial Council of California and available at the Probate Clerk's window for a fee. The handbook is also available on the internet:

<http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/seniors/handbook.htm>

How do I establish a limited conservatorship?

– A step-by-step Guide:

Establishing a limited conservatorship takes time. You need to fill out paperwork and file it with the Probate clerk. Then you must arrange to give notice to certain relatives of the proposed conservatee, and arrange to have the citation served on the proposed conservatee. Next you must attend the hearing, and, if your petition is granted, file more paperwork with the Probate clerk.

What to do:

Step 1: Make sure you have these court forms.

As part of your conservatorship package you should have the following forms:

The name of the form and the form number are always in the same place. The form number is located in the upper right-hand corner and also in the lower left-hand corner.

The form name is located in the center at the bottom of the page and also in the “caption” box on top of the page.

- Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator (GC-310)
- Referral for Investigator’s Report (SDSC PR-20)
- Notice of Hearing (GC-020)
- Citation for Conservatorship (GC-320)
- Confidential Conservator Screening Form (GC-314)
- Confidential Supplemental Information (GC-312)
- Capacity Declaration-Conservatorship (GC-335)
- Duties of Conservator (GC-348)
- Order Appointing Conservator (GC-340)
- Letters of Conservatorship (GC-350)

Step 2: Fill out the forms.

The person who fills out the forms is called the petitioner. The person who wants to be the proposed conservator can be the petitioner or another person.

Sometimes the questions on these forms ask you for more information, like explanations, and to write them out on a separate sheet of paper. These are called Attachments. If you need to add an Attachment, write the following information at the top of a blank sheet of paper and attach it to the form:

- ❑ Conservatorship of _____ (insert name of proposed conservatee)
- ❑ Case number _____ (insert case number)
- ❑ _____ (Name of the Form which requires the attachment, e.g. “Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator”)
- ❑ Attachment # _____ (insert the item number that requires the attachment)

After you have completely filled out all the forms, make 3 copies of all forms.

Staple the pages together of those forms that consist of more than one page (e.g. Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator (GC-310) consists of pages 1 through 5 and might also require you to create attachments)

You must 2-hole punch the top of all the forms.

Organize the forms as follows: the original (signed) form on top and the 3 copies underneath. Repeat this with each of the forms: original on top, 3 copies underneath.

Step 3: File the Forms.

Then, file your forms at the Court Clerk's office.

Downtown San Diego:
Probate Clerk's Office, 3rd floor
Madge Bradley Building
San Diego Probate Court
1409 4th Avenue, San Diego

North County Division:
Probate Clerk's Office
325 S. Melrose Drive
Vista, CA 92081

The clerk will ask you to pay the court fees. Keep your receipt. You may need it later. To find out the current fee, visit the San Diego Court's website at:

<http://www.sdcourt.ca.gov>

If you can't afford to pay the Court fees, fill out the following:

- Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs (FW-001), and
- Order on Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs (FW-003)

Step 4: Get a Conformed Copy

The clerk will keep the original forms and one set of copies and will return to you a "conformed" set of copies. A "conformed" copy means a copy that has been stamped exactly as the original. This copy will be your proof that you filed the forms in person.

The clerk will stamp your hearing date and time on the Notice of Hearing (GC-020). This is the date the judge will hear your case.

Step 5: Giving Notice and Serving Citation A) Giving Notice

The law says you must arrange to give notice to certain relatives of the proposed conservatee and to some agencies. This means someone over the age of 18 – not you – must mail a copy of the Notice of Hearing (GC-020) and a copy of the Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator (GC-310) to those individuals and agencies before the hearing. This way they will know you are asking to be the conservator of the adult with developmental disabilities and where and when the court proceedings are taking place.

You must do this even if you think they don't care or may disagree with you.

You must arrange to "give notice by mail" to the following relatives of the proposed conservatee and agencies:

- Parents
- Brothers and sisters
- Spouse
- Children
- Grandparents
- Grandchildren, and
- Regional Center
- Veteran's Administration (if applicable)

The relatives and the Veteran's Administration must receive at least 15 days notice prior to the hearing. The Regional Center requires 30 days notice.

What if I don't know where some or all of the relatives are?

Try to find the relatives by:

- asking all family members and friends who might know them, and
- looking in phone books and the internet, and
- calling telephone information, and
- contacting the last known address, phone number and employer of that relative.

If you still cannot find the relative(s), write out an optional form called Due Diligence Declaration listing all the efforts you took in finding them and sign and date the declaration under penalty of perjury under the laws of California.

What if a relative is out-of-state or in another country?

You must still arrange for a server – not you – to mail a copy of the Notice of Hearing (GC-020) and Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator (GC-310) at least 15 days before the Court hearing

(B) Serving the Citation

The law says you must arrange to have someone over the age of 18 – not you – “serve a citation” on the proposed conservatee at least 15 days before the hearing date. “Serving a citation” means someone must personally give a copy of the Citation (GC-320) and a copy of the Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator (GC-310) to the developmentally disabled adult.

You should be careful that the server delivers only a copy of the citation and not the original citation. You can identify the “original” citation by the signature of the court clerk on the front page. There is only one “original” citation, which needs to be returned to the court with the completed “Proof of Service” on the back.

Who can serve the Citation and mail the Notice?

Ask a friend or a family member who is 18 years old or over, or hire a professional process server. A “Process Server” is a business you pay to deliver court papers. Look in the Yellow pages under “Process Serving.” The Sheriff’s Department may also serve as process server.

How to fill out the Proof of Service?

Both the Notice of Hearing (GC-020), and the Citation (GC-320) have a Proof of Service on the back, which needs to be filled out by the “server”.

The person who performs the mailing must fill out the “Proof of Service by Mail” on the back of the Notice of Hearing (GC-020) after he/she has mailed out a copy of the Notice of Hearing (GC-020) and a copy of the Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator (GC-310) to the relatives and the Regional Center. The server has to state their residence or business address in number 2., how the mailing has occurred in number 3, the date and place mailed in number 4, check number 5 stating that they have served a copy of the petition and date, print their name and sign under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Also, the server has to list the names and addresses of everybody to whom notice was mailed.

The person who serves the citation must then fill out the “Proof of Service” on the back of the ORIGINAL Citation (GC-320) after he/she has served the copy of the Citation (GC-320) and a copy of the Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator (GC-310) on the proposed conservatee. The server has to state the information in number 2 through 5, then date, and sign under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Note: you can identify the “ORIGINAL” citation by the signature of the court clerk on the front page. There is only one “original” citation, which needs to be returned to the court with the completed “Proof of Service” on the back.

Then, the petitioner must copy these completed forms and file them with the court. The clerk will return a “conformed” copy to the petitioner.

Step 6: Court Investigation

The Court investigator will call the house or residential place where the proposed conservatee lives to set up a home visit.

The Court wants the investigator to write a report for the Court and make recommendations about your case.

Step 7: Court Appointed Attorney

The Court will also appoint an attorney for the proposed conservatee. The attorney will also meet with the proposed conservatee and find out if a conservatorship is appropriate and file a report accordingly.

Step 8: Doctor’s Declaration

You need to get the Capacity Declaration (Form GC-335) filled out and signed by the proposed conservatee’s doctor. Make sure the doctor fills out the form completely and signs and dates the first and third page and also initials the third page. Be sure that all the questions are answered by the doctor and nothing is left blank.

Then copy and file this form with the clerk. The clerk will return a “conformed” copy to the petitioner.

Step 9: Check the Probate Examiner Notes

You can check the Probate Examiner Notes a couple of days before the hearing date at the following website:

<http://www.sdcourt.ca.gov>

You can then enter the case number and find out if there are any problems with your case.

If you see an “X” at the bottom of the Notes, it means that there is a problem with your petition. You should then call the Probate Examiner listed in the Notes from 1:30pm-2:30 pm. You may see the Probate Examiner in person from 2:30pm-3:30pm At:

Downtown San Diego
Probate Clerk’s Office, 3rd floor
Madge Bradley Building
San Diego Probate Court
1409 4th Avenue, San Diego
(619) 687-2000

North County Division:
Probate Clerk’s Office
325 S. Melrose Drive
Vista, CA 92081
(760) 806-6150

You must fix the problem before your hearing date. The judge will not be able to decide on your petition until the problem has been fixed.

Step 10: Attend the hearing.

The petitioner must attend the hearing. You should bring all the forms, including all conformed copies, to the hearing.

The proposed conservatee must attend the hearing, unless his/her doctor states in writing (on the Capacity Declaration GC-335) that he/she is unable to attend.

Everyone who received a “Notice of the Hearing” may attend the hearing.

At the hearing, the judge may (1) grant the petition for conservatorship, (2) continue the hearing to a future date if there is something missing in the petition or if some reports have not yet been filed, or (3) deny the petition.

If the proposed conservatee or any attendees object to the petition, a trial will be scheduled so that everyone’s position regarding the conservatorship will be heard.

What happens after the hearing?

If the court says you can be the conservator for the developmentally disabled adult, you must do the following before your appointment becomes effective:

1. Fill out and submit these forms with the Clerk's Office:

- GC-340 Order Appointing Conservator
- GC-350 Letters of Conservatorship

You must bring two (2) sets of these forms. Both sets must be stamped by the Clerk. The Clerk keeps one set and you keep the other set.

You must also bring a self-addressed stamped envelope.

2. Buy a copy of the Handbook for Conservators published by the Judicial Council of California, if you have not already done so.

How long will I be a conservator?

The limited conservatorship lasts for the lifetime of the conservatee or the lifetime of the conservator (whichever is shorter) unless the court orders otherwise. Also, if a court investigator's report or other information suggests a conservator is not acting in the best interests of the conservatee, the judge will issue an order to show cause. If this happens, there will be a court hearing to decide if the conservator should be removed and replaced. This is not a criminal hearing, but, if a conservator is suspected of taking physical or financial advantage of a conservatee, the State can file criminal charges.

(SIGNATURE OF DECLARANT)

When you are appointed by the court as a conservator, you become responsible to the court and assume certain duties and obligations. All of your actions as conservator are subject to review by the court. An attorney is best qualified to advise you about these matters. You should clearly understand the information on this form. You will find additional information in the Judicial Council *Handbook for Conservators, which you are required by law to possess.

A conservatee does not lose all rights or all voice in important decisions affecting his or her way of life. All conservatees have the right to be treated with understanding and respect, the right to have their wishes considered, and the right to be well cared for by you. A conservatee generally keeps the right to (1) control his or her own salary, (2) make or change a will, (3) marry, (4) receive personal mail, (5) be represented by a lawyer, (6) ask a judge to change conservators, (7) ask a judge to end the conservatorship, (8) vote, unless a judge decides the conservatee is not capable of exercising this right, (9) control personal spending money, if a judge has authorized an allowance, and (10) make his or her own medical decisions, unless a judge has taken away that right and given it to you. Ask your attorney what rights the conservatee does not have and consult your attorney when you are in doubt.

If the court appoints you as conservator of the person, you will arrange for the conservatee's care and protection, decide where the conservatee will live, and make arrangements for the conservatee's health care, meals, clothing, personal care, housekeeping, transportation, and recreation.

You must assess the conservatee's needs and decide how to meet them.

You may decide where the conservatee will live, but you must choose the "least restrictive," appropriate living situation that is safe and comfortable and allows the conservatee as much independence as possible. You must not move the conservatee from the state or place the conservatee involuntarily in a mental health treatment facility without permission of the court. You must notify the court of each change of the conservatee's address and your address. If you are authorized to place the conservatee in a secure facility because of dementia, you must be sure that the placement is appropriate, meets all special needs, and is the least restrictive.

You are responsible for ensuring that the conservatee's health needs are met. You may not, however, give or withhold consent for medical treatment over the conservatee's objection unless the court has given you exclusive authority to consent because the conservatee has lost the ability to make sound medical choices. If you have the authority to approve the use of psychotropic medications to treat dementia and the behaviors associated with it, you should be sure that other, less intrusive treatment options are explored first.

4. WORK WITH THE CONSERVATOR OF THE ESTATE

If someone else is handling the conservatee's assets, the two of you must work together to be sure the conservatee can afford the care you arrange. Purchases you make for the conservatee must be approved by the conservator of the estate or you may not be reimbursed.

5. CONSULT YOUR ATTORNEY AND OTHER RESOURCES

Your attorney will advise you on your duties, the limits of your authority, the rights of the conservatee, and your dealings with the court. If you have legal questions, check with your attorney, not the court staff. Other questions may be answered better and less expensively by calling on local community resources. (To find these resources, see the Handbook for Conservators and the local supplement distributed by the court.)

III. CONSERVATOR OF THE ESTATE

If the court appoints you as conservator of the estate, you will manage the conservatee's finances, protect the conservatee's income and assets, make an inventory of the conservatorship estate's assets, develop a working plan to ensure that the conservatee's needs are met, make sure the conservatee's bills are paid, invest the conservatee's money, see that the conservatee is receiving all the income and benefits he or she is entitled to, ensure that tax returns are filed on time, keep accurate financial records, and regularly report your financial accounts to the court. (Note: The assets and finances of the conservatee are known as "the estate.")

1. MANAGING THE ESTATE'S ASSETS

a. Prudent investments

You must manage the estate assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means you must be cautious and you may not make any speculative investments.

b. Keep estate assets separate from anyone else's

You must keep the money and property in this estate separate from anyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, the account name must indicate that it is a conservatorship account and not your personal account. Never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise mix them with your or anyone else's property, even for brief periods. Securities in the estate must be held in a name that shows they are estate property and not your personal property.

c. Interest-bearing accounts and other investments

Except for checking accounts intended for ordinary administration expenses, estate accounts must earn interest. You may deposit estate funds in insured accounts in financial institutions, but you should not put more than $100,000 in one institution. Consult with an attorney before making other kinds of investments.

d. Other restrictions

There are many other restrictions on your authority to deal with estate assets. Without prior order of the court, you may not pay fees to yourself or to your attorney, make a gift of estate assets, or borrow from the estate. If you do not obtain the court's permission when it is required, you may be removed as conservator or you may be required to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds, or both. You should consult with an attorney concerning the legal requirements affecting sales, leases, mortgages, and investments of estate property.

2. INVENTORY OF ESTATE PROPERTY

a. Locate the estate's property

You must locate, take possession of, and protect all the conservatee's income and assets that will be administered in the estate. You should change the ownership of most assets of the conservatorship into the conservatorship estate's name. For real estate, you must record a copy of your Letters of Conservatorship with the county recorder in each county where the conservatee owns real property.

b. Determine the value of the property

You must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the property unless the appointment is waived by the court. You, rather than the referee, must determine the value of certain "cash items." An attorney can advise you about how to do this.

c. File an inventory and appraisal

Within 90 days after your appointment as conservator, you must file with the court an inventory and appraisal of all the assets in the estate.

|                                    |                      |

| CONSERVATEE                        |                      |

3. INSURANCE

You should determine that there is appropriate and adequate insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. Maintain the insurance in force during the entire period of the administration (except for assets after they are sold).

4. RECORD KEEPING

a. Keep an accounting

You must keep complete and accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. The checkbook for the conservatorship checking account is your indispensable tool for keeping records of income and expenditures. You will have to prepare an accounting of all money and property you have received, what you have spent, the date of each transaction, and its purpose. You must describe in detail what you have left after you pay the estate's expenses.

b. Court review of your records

You must file a petition requesting that the court review and approve your accounting one year after your appointment and at least every two years after that. Save your receipts because the court may ask to review them also. If you do not file your accountings as required, the court will order you to do so. You may be removed as conservator if you fail to comply.

5. CONSULTING AN ATTORNEY

Your attorney will advise you and help prepare your inventories, accountings, and petitions to the court. If you have questions, check with your attorney, not the court staff. You should cooperate with your attorney at all times. When in doubt, contact your attorney.

IV. DUTY TO DISCLOSE

If you are the spouse of the conservatee, you must disclose to the court the filing of any action or proceeding against the conservatee for (1) legal separation, (2) dissolution of marriage, (3) annulment, or (4) adjudication of nullity of marriage. The disclosure must be made within 10 days of the initial filing of the action or proceeding by filing a notice with the court and serving notice according the Probate Code.

V. LIMITED CONSERVATOR (for the developmentally disabled only)

1. AUTHORITY SPECIFIED IN YOUR LETTERS

If the court appoints you as limited conservator, you will have authority to take care of only those aspects of the conservatee's life and financial affairs specified in your Letters of Conservatorship and the court's order appointing you. The conservatee retains all other legal and civil rights. Although most of the information provided in this form also applies to limited conservatorships (especially the duties of the conservator of the person), you should clarify with your attorney exactly which information applies in your case.

2. DUTY TO HELP CONSERVATEE DEVELOP SELF-RELIANCE

You must secure treatment, services, and opportunities that will assist the limited conservatee to develop maximum self-reliance and independence. This assistance may include training, education, medical and psychological services, social opportunities, vocational opportunities, and other appropriate help.

VI. TEMPORARY CONSERVATOR

If the court appoints you as temporary conservator, you will generally have the same duties and authority as general conservators except the conservatorship will end on the date specified in your Letters of Temporary Conservatorship. Most of the information in this form also applies to temporary conservatorships, but you must consult your attorney about which duties you will not perform because of the limited time. A temporary conservator should avoid making long-term decisions or changes that could safely wait until a general conservator is appointed. As temporary conservator, you may not move a conservatee from his or her home or sell or give away the conservatee's home or any other assets without court approval.
